

Take your business to China.

Your Key to Success

Braving drastic market competition, many e-businesses have turned their focus to the Asian marketplace, particularly to China. If you want to tap into a booming Chinese marketplace, a fully localised payment solution is your key to success.

Your Preferred Partner in China

As a NETELLER Group brand, NETELLER (1-PAY) offers online payment services tailored to the needs of customers in China. By enabling safe and secure online payments, NETELLER (1-PAY) is the perfect solution for merchants who:

- Want to offer real-time transfer of funds to and from customers in China
- Are looking for a convenient, all-in-one service from deposit to payout
- Want to accelerate customer conversions and expand their global business, without the risk

With proven conversion rates of more than 60% and a quick startup process, you can grow your business in

For more information, please contact us at merchantbizdev@neteller.com.

China by giving your customers instant access to funds that they can use on your site.

NETELLER (1-PAY) e-wallet

NETELLER (1-PAY) brings your customers in China a fully localised e-wallet so they can easily transfer funds to and from your site in global currencies, knowing that their personal information always remains safe.

Features

- Local instant deposit and withdrawal options
- Domestic debit and credit card deposits
- Local language site and support
- Wide bank network that covers most of China
- Support for RMB transactions, regardless of merchant currency capabilities
- Comprehensive identity services with stringent "Know Your Customer" processes
- Fully indemnified transfers from your customers

One Simple Step to Expand Your Business

To begin accepting transactions on your site from customers in China, simply contact us and we will get you started in just days. There is no IT or development work required for NETELLER merchants.